

SNDT Women's University, Mumbai

S.N.D.T. College of Education, Pune

Academic Year 2025-2026

Report on Constitution Day 2025

Date: 26 Nov 2025

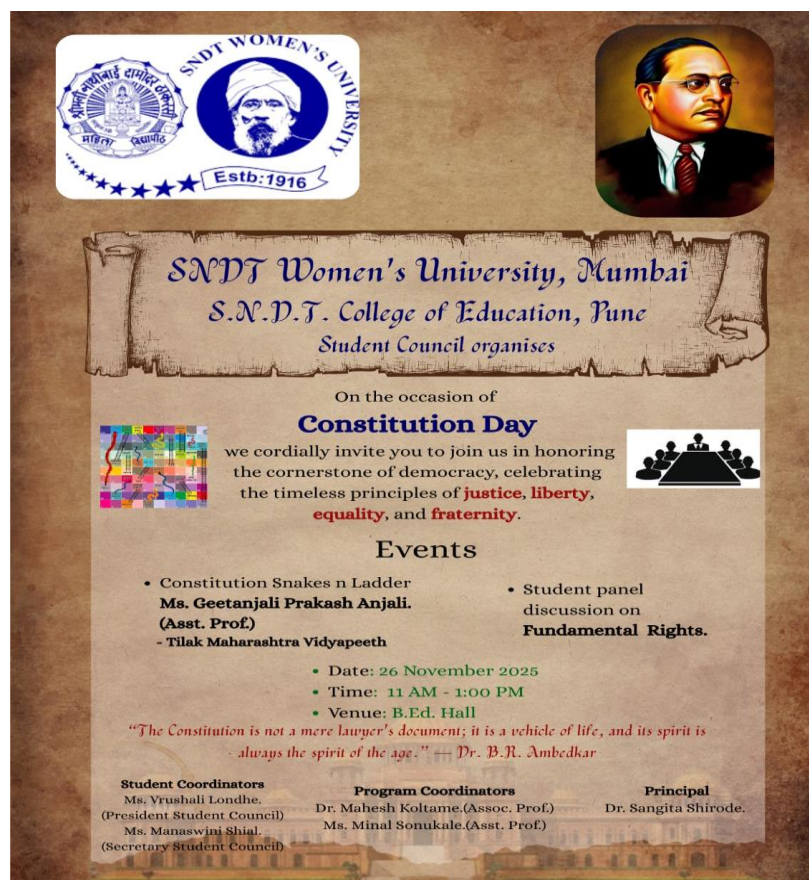

Venue: B.Ed. hall

Introduction -

Constitution Day, also known as National Law Day, is celebrated every year on November 26th to honor the adoption of the Constitution of India. This day serves as a reminder of the importance of our Constitution, which was adopted in 1949 and came into effect on January 26, 1950. The Constitution is the supreme law of the land, laying the foundation for justice, liberty, and lity for all citizens of India.

In a college setting, the celebration of Constitution Day is an opportunity for student-Teachers and faculty to engage in discussions about the Constitution's role in shaping the nation's democracy and governance. It encourages reflection on the fundamental rights and duties enshrined in the Constitution, which guide the democratic framework of India.

The program was graced by the presence of our respected faculty members and staff:

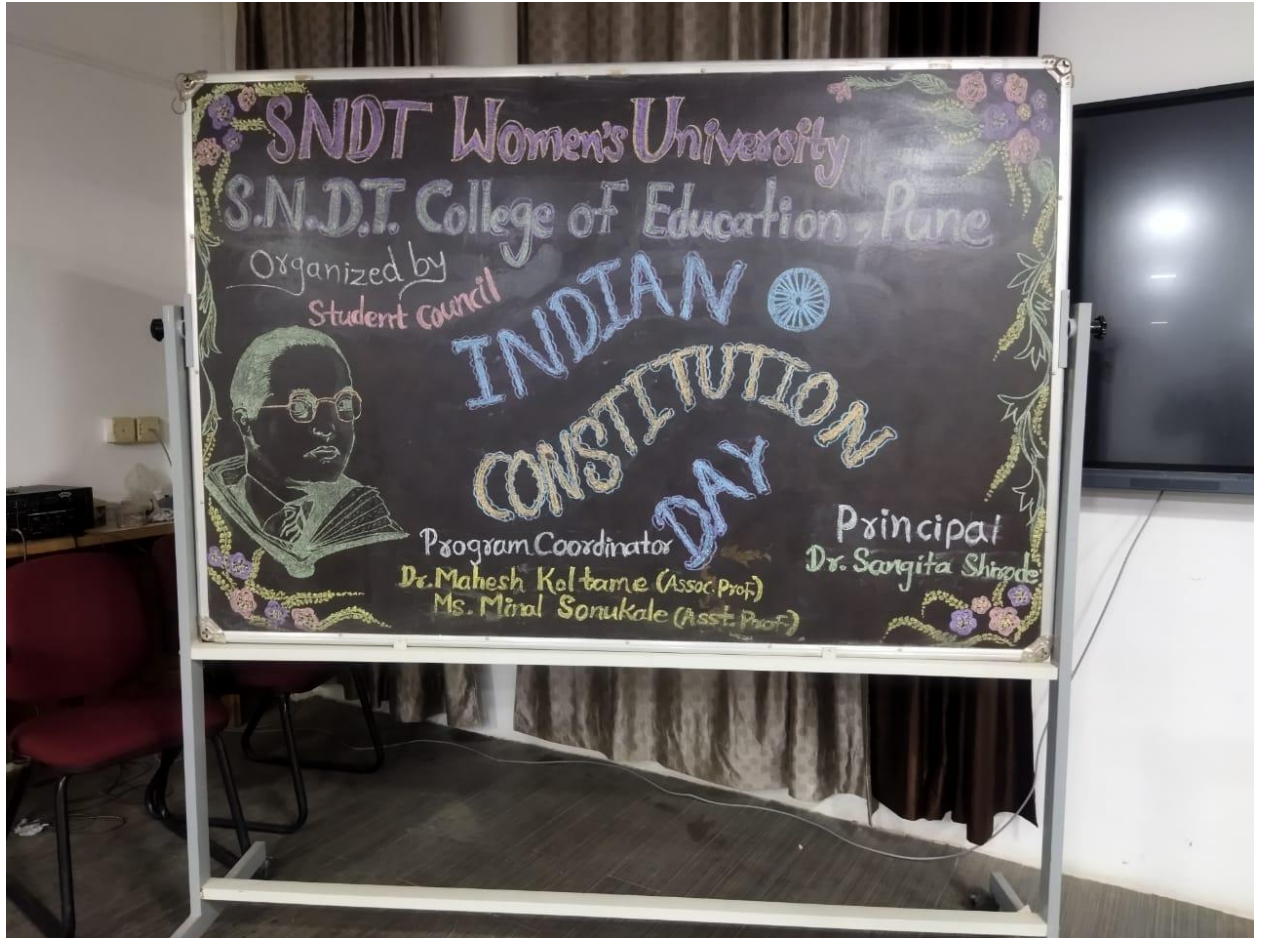

Program Proceedings

The program was eloquently anchored by Sakshi Bhore from B.Ed. first year student-teacher, who guided the audience with enthusiasm. The program organized at the college began with a heartfelt tribute to Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, the architect of the Indian Constitution. In the presence of all dignitaries, professors, student-teachers, and staff members, floral tributes were offered at his portrait.

Following this, every student-teacher and guest present at the event was handed a Constitution Booklet/Leaflet. The main objective behind this initiative was to raise awareness among students about the fundamental rights, duties, and the significance of the preamble in the Constitution.

During the program, a brief guidance session was conducted on the history of the Constitution, Dr. Ambedkar's contributions, and the responsibility of preserving the values of the Constitution for the current generation. The student teacher and staff present expressed their commitment to upholding the values enshrined in the Constitution.

A motivational and informative program was organized in the college on the occasion of Constitution Day. The objective of this event was to create awareness among student teacher about the Indian Constitution.

In addition, a short Quiz competition was also conducted by Chandani Jadiye, in which both teachers and student-Teachers actively participated. Through this quiz, student-Teachers tested their knowledge about the Constitution, its importance, and the Fundamental Rights. The quiz played a significant role in strengthening the students-Teachers' understanding of the Constitution.

A unique and appealing activity was also organized during the program. The student-Teachers had prepared various Posters related to the Constitution. This poster exhibition enhanced the Student-Teachers' creativity and increased their curiosity about the Constitution.

Along with this, an interesting competition called "Constitution Snake Ladders" was Conducted by Snehal Kokani. In this game, just like the traditional snake ladders, each square contained a point, event, or article related to the Indian Constitution.

Whenever a participant landed on a particular square, they had to share information about the topic written in that box.

Here, the snakes symbolized mistakes, ignorance, or misconceptions related to the Constitution.

The ladders represented knowledge, awareness, and the strengthening of constitutional values.

Through this fun-filled activity, students learned important information about the Constitution in an enjoyable manner and further strengthened their understanding.

“In the second session of the program, a panel discussion was conducted, which included the participation of the following Student-Teachers:

Chandani Jadiye, Anupama Bondre, Gayatri Katkar, Yogita Patekar, Shruti Gavli, Rasika Kamble, Suvrna sinker. Interactive Question Answer's Session was conducted which helped to enhance are knowledge on Constitution.

At the end of the program, the teachers and the Principal of the college whole heartedly appreciated the student-Teachers for their active participation and the creative activities they carried out. The curiosity, creativity, and knowledge shown by the girls about the Constitution were specially acknowledged and praised.

The program concluded with the Vande Mataram which strengthened the feelings of respect, unity, and national values.

Celebrating Constitution Day In the college helped instill awariness, pride and a sense of responsibility about the Constitution among the students. Various activities such as quizzes, poster exhibitions, and the Constitution Snake Ladders game provided an excellent opportunity for the students to learn about the fundamental principles, rights, and duties of the Indian Constitution. Through this program, the importance of the Constitution, democratic values, and national unity was effectively conveyed.

Under the able guidance of Dr. Mahesh Koltame Sir and Ms. Minal Sonukale Ma'am, this program was conducted in an excellent and successful manner. From planning to execution, both of them provided valuable guidance, encouragement, and support at every stage.

Student Coordinators

Ms. Vrushali Londhe
(President Student Council)

Program Coordinators

Dr. Mahesh Koltame (Assoc. Prof.)
Ms. Minal Sonukale (Asst. Prof.)

Principal

Dr.Sangita Shirode

